6. The Council shall have power to—

(a) direct any contractor or person providing services in the construction industry to deliver its services in such manner as to ensure compliance with this Act;

(b) require any contractor or person to submit such information and records as may be necessary to enable the Council to monitor the performance of the contractor;

(c) consider any matter affecting the construction industry and make representations thereon to the Minister;

(d) recommend training institutions in Zambia and outside for the training of persons engaged in the construction industry;

(e) obtain information related to the industry from any person engaged in the construction industry in Zambia;

(f) obtain and collate information concerning any existing or proposed project and where necessary, advise persons engaged in the construction industry on the project; and

(g) generally, to do such things as the Council may consider necessary or expedient for the performance of its functions under this Act.

PART III
REGISTRATION OF CONTRACTORS

7. (1) An application for registration as a contractor shall be made to the Council in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) The application referred to in subsection (1) shall state—

(a) the name of the applicant;

(b) the principal place of business;

(c) the qualifications and experience of the applicant;

(d) the names and qualifications of the professional staff employed by the contractor;

(e) the areas of construction in which the applicant is involved;

(f) the capital and other financial resources available to the applicant;

(g) any other details which the Minister, may on the recommendation of the Council, by statutory instrument, prescribe:

Provided that the Minister may prescribe—
(i) different requirements for the registration of different categories of contractors taking into account the emerging sector and different stages of development of contractors in the construction industry; or

(ii) different requirements for the registration of a foreign company or foreign firm.

(3) The Council shall, within sixty days of the date of receipt of an application for registration, consider the application.

(4) Where the Council is satisfied that the applicant has complied with the requirements for registration under this Act, the Council shall register the applicant and may refuse to register the applicant where the Council is not so satisfied.

(5) Upon registration the Council shall issue the applicant with a certificate of registration.

(6) Where the Council refuses to register an applicant as a contractor, the Council shall, in writing, furnish the applicant concerned with the reasons for such refusal within fourteen days of taking the decision.

(7) A certificate for registration issued under subsection (5) shall be valid for one year.

(8) A registered contractor may apply for renewal of registration three months before the expiration of the existing registration and shall pay the prescribed renewal fee.

8. A contractor registered under this Act shall not undertake construction work in a category in respect of which that person is not registered.

9. (1) The Council shall keep and maintain, in the prescribed form, a register of—

   (a) every contractor registered under this Act; and

   (b) every affiliated body.

(2) The register referred to in subsection (1) shall—

   (a) indicate the size and distribution of contractors operating within the construction industry;

   (b) indicate the number, nature and performance of contractors and target groups; and

   (c) contain such other particulars as the Council may prescribe.
10. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may cancel the certificate of registration of any contractor if the Council is satisfied that —

(a) the contractor has failed to pay the annual registration fee;
(b) the certificate of registration has been obtained by fraud or mistake;
(c) the contractor has willfully violated any of the provisions of this Act;
(d) the contractor has ceased to carry on business in the construction industry in Zambia;
(e) the contractor has undertaken work in a category other than the category in respect of which the contractor is registered; or
(f) the contractor is guilty of professional misconduct.

(2) Where the Council intends to cancel the certificate of registration under subsection (1) the Council shall, at least three months before cancelling the certificate, give notice, in writing, to the contractor of the intention to cancel the registration of such contractor.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall state the reasons for the intended cancellation and require the contractor to show cause, within such period as the Council shall specify, why the registration should not be so cancelled.

(4) If the Council is not satisfied with the explanation given by the contractor the Council shall cancel the certificate of registration and notify the contractor accordingly.

11. (1) Any person aggrieved by any refusal of the Council to register that person as a contractor or by the cancellation of a certificate of registration may appeal to the Minister not later than thirty days after the notification of such refusal or cancellation, as the case may be.

(2) Where an appeal is made under subsection (1), the Minister may give such directions to the Council as the Minister considers necessary to enable the Minister to determine the appeal.
(3) The Minister in determining the appeal may confirm, vary or set aside the decision of the Council.

(4) Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Minister may appeal to the High Court within thirty days of the Minister’s decision.

12. (1) The professional bodies which regulate the following professions shall be affiliated to the Council:

(a) architects;
(b) engineers; and
(c) surveyors.

(2) An affiliated body referred to in subsection (1) shall pay such affiliation fees and other fees as the Minister may, on the advice of the Council, by statutory instrument, prescribe.

13. The Council shall at regular intervals, but not less than once in every year, cause to be published in the Gazette a list of all contractors registered under this Part.

14. (1) Every registered contractor shall on or before the fourteenth day of January each year, pay such annual registration fee as the Council may determine.

(2) The Council shall, on the payment of an annual registration fee under subsection (1), issue a certificate of registration to the paid up contractor.

PART IV
REGISTER OF PROJECTS

15. (1) The Council shall establish a register of projects to gather information on the nature, value and distribution of projects and provide the basis for a best practice project assessment scheme provided for under this Act.

(2) The Minister may, in consultation with the Council, prescribe the requirements for the registration of projects taking into account the emerging sector and the different sizes and characteristics of projects in the construction industry.

(3) All construction contracts above a tender value, prescribed by the Minister upon the recommendation of the Council, shall be recorded in the register of projects.

(4) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Council, may prescribe a fee to be paid to the Council for the registration of a project by persons undertaking construction works.

(2) After a date determined by the Minister by Gazette all construction contracts above a prescribed tender value shall be subject to an assessment of compliance with best practice standards and guidelines published by the Council in the Gazette.

(3) Every client who engages in the best practice project assessment scheme shall pay to the Council such fee as may be prescribed by the Minister, on the advice of the Council.

PART VI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

21. (1) A contractor shall not undertake, carry out or complete any construction works or portion of such works for a public sector contract, awarded in terms of competitive tender or quotation, unless the contractor is registered with the Council and holds a valid certificate issued by the Council.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) An employee of a contractor registered under the Act shall not be deemed to carry on business within the meaning of this section by reason only of the performance of that person's functions as an employee.
(4) Any contractor who carries out or attempts to carry out any construction works or portion of such works under a public sector contract and who is not a registered contractor or after being notified in writing that the certificate of registration has been cancelled commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

(5) In this section, "public sector contract" means a contract in respect of construction works for the Government, a parastatal or a statutory body.

22. (1) A person shall not award a contract for any construction works of such value as the Minister may, by statutory instrument, upon the recommendation of the Council, determine to another person unless that other person is registered under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

23. (1) A person shall not award a contract for construction works to a foreign company or foreign firm without the approval of the Council.

(2) Where an award for a contract is referred to the Council for approval and the Council determines that the construction work to be awarded can be undertaken by a Zambian company or Zambian firm the Council shall not endorse its approval and the person shall not award the contract to the foreign company or foreign firm.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

24. (1) Subject to section sixteen a person shall not award a contract for any construction works to a foreign company or foreign firm unless the foreign company or foreign firm undertakes the construction works in partnership or jointly with a Zambian company or Zambian firm.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.
A contractor shall not use—

(a) construction materials; or

(b) other materials used in the construction industry or construction related activities that do not conform to the standards set under the Standards Act or that are of a substandard quality.

A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred notice; and

(i) the member failing to disclose an interest under paragraph 5.

(4) If the office of a member falls vacant, a new member may be appointed, but that member shall hold office only for the unexpired part of the term.

3. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Council may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Council shall meet for the transaction of its business at least once in every three months at such places and times as the Chairperson may determine, but the first meeting of the Council shall be called by the Minister not later than one month after the commencement of this Act.

(3) Upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, a meeting of the Council may be called by the Chairperson, and shall be called if not less than seven members so request in writing:

Provided that if the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of such notice, a special meeting may be called upon giving a shorter notice.

(4) Eight members shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Council.

(5) There shall preside at any meeting of the Council—

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson; or

(c) in the absence of both the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, such member as the members present shall elect for the purpose of that meeting.

(6) A decision of the Council on any question shall be by a majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to the deliberative vote.

(7) The Council may invite any person whose presence is in its opinion, desirable to attend and participate in the deliberations of a meeting but that person shall have no vote.

(8) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Council shall not be affected by any vacancy in its membership or by any defect in the appointment of any member or because a person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

(9) The Council shall cause to be kept minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of the Council and of every meeting of any committee constituted by the Council.
4. (1) The Council may for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act constitute any committee, the chairperson of which shall be a member of the Council, and may delegate to that committee any of its functions.

(2) The Council may appoint as members of a committee established under subparagraph (1), persons who are or are not members of the Council and such persons shall hold office for such period as the Council may determine.

(3) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Council any committee established under subparagraph (1), may regulate its own procedure.

5. (1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Council or a committee at which any matter, in which that person or any member of the person’s immediate family is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, is the subject of consideration, that person shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not, unless the Council or the committee otherwise direct, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to that matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

6. No action or any other proceedings shall be instituted against a member of the Council, a member of any committee of the Council or a member of staff of the Council or School for anything done in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of the functions under this Act.

7. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by or on behalf of the Council, publish or disclose to any person otherwise than in the course of that person’s duties, the contents of any document, communication or information whatsoever which relates to, and which has come to that person’s knowledge in the course of, that person’s duties under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand penalty units, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(3) If any person having information which to that person’s knowledge has been published or disclosed in contravention of subparagraph (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates any such
8. There shall be paid to a member of the Council or a committee such allowances as the Council may determine, subject to the approval of the Minister.

9. (1) There shall be an Executive Director who shall be appointed by the Council, on such terms and conditions as the Council may determine, subject to the approval of the Minister.

(2) The Executive Director shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Council and shall, subject to the control of the Council, be responsible for the day to day administration of the Council.

(3) The Council may delegate to the Executive Director such of its functions as it may consider necessary.

(4) The Executive Director shall—

(a) attend meetings of the Council and of any committee of the Council, but shall have no vote; and

(b) be the Secretary to the Council.

(5) The Council may on such terms and conditions as it may determine appoint such other staff of the Council as it considers necessary.

PART II
FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

10. (1) The funds of the Council shall consist of such monies as may—

(a) be appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of Council;

(b) be paid to the Council by way of fees, grants or donations; and

(c) otherwise vest in or accrue to the Council.

(2) The Council may—

(a) accept monies by way of grants or donations from any source in Zambia and, subject to the approval of the Minister, from any source outside Zambia;

(b) with the approval of the Minister, raise by way of loans or otherwise, such monies as it may require for the discharge of its functions; and
(c) charge and collect fees in respect of programmes and seminars conducted by the Council.

(3) There shall be paid from the funds of the Council—

(a) the salaries, allowances and loans of the staff of the Council;

(b) such reasonable travelling and other allowances for members or members of any committee when engaged on the business of the Council at such rates as the Council may, with the approval of the Minister, determine; and

(c) any other expenses incurred by the Council in the performance of its functions.

11. The Council may invest in such manner as it considers necessary any of its funds which it does not immediately require for the performance of its functions.

12. The financial year of the Council shall be a period of twelve months ending on 31st December in each year.

13. (1) The Council shall cause to be kept proper books of the accounts and other records relating to its accounts.

(2) The accounts of the Council shall be audited annually by independent auditors appointed by the Council.

(3) The fees of the auditors shall be paid by the Council.

14. (1) As soon as is practicable, but not later than three months after the financial year, the Council shall submit to the Minister a report concerning its activities during such financial year.

(2) The report referred to in subparagraph (1) shall include information on the financial affairs of the Council and there shall be appended thereto—

(a) an audited balance sheet;

(b) an audited statement of income and expenditure; and

(c) such other information regarding activities undertaken during the year, as the Minister may require.

(3) The report referred to in subparagraph (2) shall specifically record the extent to which the objectives defined in the annual work plan and budget have been attained.

(4) The Minister shall, not later than thirty days after the first sitting of the National Assembly next after receipt of the report referred to in subparagraph (1), lay it before the National Assembly.
SECOND SCHEDULE
(Section 28)
PART I
SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Interpretation 1. In this Schedule —

"former Council" means the National Council for Construction registered under the Societies Act;

"former School" means the Roads Training School in the Roads Department under the Ministry responsible for works and supply.

PART II
TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR CONSTRUCTION

2. (1) Any professional body that immediately prior to the appointed date was affiliated to the former Council shall be deemed as from the appointed date to be an affiliated body under this Act.

(2) A person who immediately before the appointed date held office as a member of the former Council, shall hold office, subject to this Act, until the Council is appointed under section four.

3. (1) On or after the appointed date, there shall be transferred to, and vest in, or subsist against, the Council by virtue of this Act without further assurance —

(a) the affairs of the former Council; and

(b) subject to this Act all property, rights and obligations which immediately before the appointed date were the property, rights and obligations of the former Council.
(2) Except as provided in this Act, every deed, bond and agreement (other than an agreement for personal service) to which the former Council was a party immediately before the appointed date, whether in writing or not, and whether or not of such a nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned, shall, unless its subject-matter or terms make it impossible that it should have effect as modified in the manner provided by this subsection, have effect as from the date of the assignment thereof, as if—

(a) the Council had been a party thereto;

(b) for any reference to the former Council there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to the Council; and

(c) for any reference to an employee of the former Council not being a party thereto and beneficially interested therein there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to such employee of the Council as the Council shall designate.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), documents, other than those referred to therein, which refer specifically or generally to the Council shall be construed in accordance with subparagraph (2) as far as applicable.

4. (1) Whenever in pursuance of this Act, any property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the former Council are deemed transferred to the Council in respect of which transfer a written law provides for registration, the Council shall make an application, in writing, to the appropriate authority for registration of the transfer.

(2) The registration authority referred to in subparagraph (1) shall make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to such transfer and, where applicable, issue the transferee concerned with a certificate of title in respect of the property or make necessary amendments to the register, as the case may be, and shall make endorsement on the deeds relating to the title, right or obligation concerned; and no registration fees, stamp duty or other duties shall be payable in respect thereof.

5. (1) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act, where any right, liability or obligation vests in the Council by virtue of this Act, the Council and all other persons shall, as from the appointed date, have the same right, powers and remedies (and in particular the same rights as to the instituting or defending of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority) for ascertaining, perfecting that right, liability or obligation as they would have had if it had at all times been a right, liability or obligation of the Council.

(2) Any legal proceedings or application or any authority pending immediately before the appointed date by or against the former Council may be continued by or against the Council.

(3) After the appointed date, proceedings in respect of any right, liability or obligation which was vested in, held, enjoyed, incurred or suffered by the former Council may be instituted by or against the Council.

6. (1) On or after appointed date, the Council shall, on such terms and conditions as it may, with the approval of the Minister, determine appoint as employees of the Council such employees of the former Council as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the Council.

(2) Where an employee of the former Council is appointed to the service of the Council—

(a) the terms and the conditions of service with the Council shall not be less favourable than those the employee enjoyed in the service of the former Council; and

(b) the employee shall be deemed to—

(i) have retired under the terms and conditions of the service of the former Council; or

(ii) continue service and the term served in the employment of the former Council shall be deemed to be service under the Council.

(3) On or after the appointed date employees of the Council who are not engaged by the Council under subparagraph (2) shall be retired under the terms and conditions of service of the former Council.

PART III

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO THE ROADS TRAINING SCHOOL

7. (1) On or after the appointed date, there shall be transferred to, and vest in, or subsist against, the Council by virtue of this Act and without further assurance—

(a) the affairs of the former School; and

(b) subject to this Act, all property, rights and obligations which immediately before the appointed date were the property, rights and obligations of the former School.
(2) Except as provided in this Act, every deed, bond and agreement (other than an agreement for personal service) to which the Government was a party immediately before the appointed date in respect of the former School, whether in writing or not, and whether or not of such a nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned, shall, unless its subject-matter or terms make it impossible that it should have effect as modified in the manner provided by this subparagraph, have effect as from the date of assignment thereof, as if—

(a) the Council had been a party thereto;

(b) for any reference to the Government there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to the Council; and

(c) for any reference to an employee of the Government not being a party thereto and beneficially interested therein there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to such employee of the Council as the Council shall designate.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2), documents, other than those referred to therein, which refer specifically or generally to the former School shall be construed in accordance with subparagraph (2) as far as applicable.

8. (1) Whenever in pursuance of this Act, any property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Government through the former School are deemed transferred to the Council in respect of which transfer a written law provides for registration, the Council shall make an application, in writing, to the appropriate authority for registration of the transfer.

(2) The registration authority referred to in subparagraph (1) shall make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to such transfer and, where applicable, issue the transferee concerned with a certificate of title in respect of the property or make necessary amendments to the register, as the case may be, and shall make endorsement on the deeds relating to the title, right or obligation concerned; and no registration fees, stamp duty or other duties shall be payable in respect thereof.

9. (1) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act, where any right, liability or obligation vests in the Council by virtue of this Act, the Council and all other persons shall, as from the appointed date, have the same rights, powers and remedies (and in particular the same rights as to the instituting or defending of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority) for ascertaining, perfecting that right, liability or obligation as they would have had if it had at all times been a right, liability or obligation of the Council.

(2) Any legal proceedings or application or any authority pending immediately before the appointed date by or against the Government in respect of the former School may be continued by or against the Council.

(3) After the appointed date, proceedings in respect of any right, liability or obligation which was vested in, held, enjoyed, incurred or suffered by the Government in respect of the former School may be instituted by or against the Council.

10. (1) On or after the appointed date, the Council shall, on such terms and conditions as it may, with the approval of the Minister determine, appoint as employees of the Council for the purposes of the School such public officers from the Public Service as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the Council in relation to the School.

(2) Where an officer from the Public Service is appointed to the service of the Council—

(a) the terms and the conditions of service with the Council shall not be less favourable than those the officer enjoyed in the Public Service; and

(b) the officer shall be deemed to have retired under section thirty-nine of the Public Service Pensions Act.

(3) On or after the appointed date employees of the Government in the former School who are not engaged by the Council under subsection (2) shall be retained by the Government and shall—

(a) be redeployed in the service of the Government; or

(b) be retired under section thirty-nine of the Public Service
Pensions Act.
